

Our warm thanks to all who attended and shared these moments of calm reflection on the humanitarian crisis that is unfolding before us.

We need to stand together to demand an end to this suffering on all sides of the conflict.