

SALISBURY CHRISTIANS TO HOLD PEACE VIGIL

to 3.30pm
Sunday 26th November
Salisbury Methodist Church

images of horror, grief and anguish appearing on our TV screens every day are deeply distressing to many. Salisbury Christians to offer a peace vigil on Sunday 26th November at 3pm in Salisbury Methodist Church. This will be a safe, neutral and reflective space for Salisbury residents to come together in solidarity with people in the Middle East and to commit themselves to the cause of peace with justice. There will be a few thoughtful words, the lighting of candles and shared silence for us to send love, compassion, peaceful energy and prayers to the Middle East. There will be an opportunity to donate to the Christian Aid Middle East Crisis Appeal to support their essential relief work in the unfolding humanitarian crisis in Gaza.

We will also make space to remember ongoing conflicts in Ukraine, Yemen, Afghanistan, Myanmar, Libya, Congo and all the places that have dropped out of the news, but where there remains suffering and ongoing violence and conflict.
