

Map of nuclear power plants in Florida

In map above, Crystal River was shut down but still stores and cools irradiated fuel rods. Levy County was planned but never opened. St. Lucie and Turkey Point are operating. I have no idea what precautions these plants are taking in preparation for the hurricane, nor could I find any information.

--

You received this message because you are subscribed to the Google Groups "GN List serve: Keep Space4Peace" group.