

Thanks to all who came to the vigil tonight, including the people who were passing and stopped to join us.

Many thanks to Zoe for painting the new banner and to Caroline for helping it magically support itself. It announces our message clearly over a large distance from the vigil itself and generated many expressions of support from those walking by.