

Kyoso School students in Hiroshima at work preparing lanterns for our Hiroshima Day Candle Float

We warmly thank the students and teachers at Kyoso School in Hiroshima for all the creativity and care they put into making the lanterns that will float alongside our own on August 6th in Salisbury.

Also very warm thanks to the Hiroshima Coventry Club who do so much to foster the links between our two cities.